THIS LITTLE BOOK
DEVOTED TO THE MEMORY OF ALUMNI OF THE PAST
WHOM THE LIVING ALUMNI
DELIGHT TO HONOR
IN THIS THE CENTENNIAL YEAR OF THE COLLEGE
IS AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATED TO OUR BELOVED LEADER
CHARLES HENRY RAMMELKAMP
SIXTH PRESIDENT OF ILLINOIS COLLEGE
WHOSE UNDAUNTED FAITH, TIRELESS DEVOTION, AND HIGH IDEALS
HAVE BROUGHT OUR ALMA MATER
TO THE THRESHOLD OF ITS SECOND CENTURY
RENEWED IN STRENGTH, HONORED OF ALL, CONFIDENT OF THE FUTURE

PREFATORY NOTE

THE publication of the Centennial Edition of this modest record of the lives of the alumni of Illinois College in whose names Memorial Memberships in the Alumni Fund Association have been established fulfills a hope that was timidly expressed in the first edition, published in 1917, and a definite promise that was made in the second edition, published in 1924. But when the promise was made five years ago and the work of preparation begun, it seemed quite improbable that anything like historical completeness could be attained, especially for the early period.

The fact is, however, that over one-half of those who are commemorated in this book are from the first twenty-five years after there began to be graduates, that is, from 1835 to 1860. This result is due, partly to the wide-spread interest which the undertaking has aroused among the relatives and friends of early students of the College, partly to the zeal of the Sigma Pi and Phi Alpha Societies in showing honor to their Founders, and partly to the extraordinary generosity shown by the alumni in contributing the money for memberships in honor of men who, though prominent in the pioneer days, were often quite unknown to the donors themselves.

If this little book shall bring back into the consciousness of the Illinois College of the twentieth century the personality, character and achievements of the leading Illinois College men of one hundred, seventy-five, and fifty years ago, it will have fulfilled its mission. The alumni of Illinois College have been deeply impressed in this the centennial year of its founding by the able historical narrative of the hundred years which President Rammelkamp has written and the Yale University Press has published. His moving story of struggle, sacrifice, and ultimate success centers in Jacksonville and Illinois; it is the story of the College. But as one follows the careers of our alumni as sketched in the following pages, we are reading the story of the development of the great Middle West, the Southwest, and the Far West. From Illinois and Jacksonville the influences radiate in every direction; it is the contribution of Illinois College to the nation.
